The first memories I have is of course in Markleville...but the one I really remember well was on Cottonwood Drive, Libby and Mom was sewing in your basement when all us girls were suppose to be playing upstairs or napping (don't remember which one)..And then they opened a PEPSI..I remember telling them that I smelled it.Libby saying you can't smell pepsi and believe me to this day I can still smell it and every time I do she is the first thing I think of and always will..Those were the best days having all of you across the street then right down the street...So many more to mention, was the greatest childhood having my first best friends right there ..Love to you all
