“ From Tarumi Church of God, Kobe, Japan
We cannot express the sorrow we feel to hear of the sudden passing of Libby. Libby came to Kobe, Japan seven years ago to worship with us and teach English at our church and Christian day care school. We remember the warmth of her fellowship and the joy she shared in her teaching. Surely she had some difficult days living in a new land with a new culture among new people, but we thank God for sending Libby to Kobe. As deep as the sorrow we feel is, we know that words cannot express the emotion that Libby’s mom and husband must feel. We pray that God’s presence will bring comfort and peace. And we pray that God will watch over little Ava Rose and bless her as she grows.

“ I knew Libby from church. As a young teen she was a buddy for children with special needs. I so appreciated her sweet spirit and heart for others. I am so sorry for your great loss!

“ Libby shared in ministry with us at Tarumi Church of God in Kobe, Japan during 2013. She was an eager learner of culture, and her love for God and for people was evident in her service. It takes a special person to leave home and family and move overseas to serve. Libby is a special person. She touched many lives with the love of God in Japan and we thank God for our time with her. The church in Japan and missionary staff throughout Asia are remembering the family in prayer during these difficult days.
