“ I grew up as neighbors and friends with the Stinson family. Elizabeth was a warm and witty person who had a knack for making people feel welcome in her home. She was always kind to me even when I know I was being a nerve wracking little kid! Later in my life, she introduced me to the man I eventually married. My condolences to Robert Doug, Ronald Ronnie and Kelly. My thoughts are with you and I hope you take comfort remembering the wonderful times you all had with her and your Dad, knowing you will see them again as the Bible promises.
