“ We were so sorry to hear of your loss of Ellen. We just found out about it today, and wanted you to know we would have been there. Jim and I loved Ellen so very much. She was one of the first people to entertain us in her home when we first came to Ovid in 1978. We loved Carl and Ellen, and had many happy memories. I loved her warm hugs and big smile. God bless you

“ So sorry to read of Ellen's death. She has a special place in my heart, as she and Carl opened their home to us as a "youth group", and especially for our Halloween parties in their barn. She will be missed.
