“ Our deepest sympathy to the whole family. I can't thank you enough Murt for loving my son like you did - for teaching him how to trap, and for all the great stories you shared with him. I can honestly say that YOU have always been Colbie's favorite man on the planet! I can only pray that Cole turns out to be the same kind of amazing man that you were. He took such pride in everything you shared and taught him! You two shared the same love for the outdoors and adventure. You helped mold him! Thank you for taking him to trapping conventions! I remember him coming home so excited to just have spent time with you. You would bring a stick of bologna and some white bread and he acted like you treated him like a King - because in his eyes that was the most precious time - being with you! You have always been his hero - always will be! He is heartbroken - like everyone else who's life you touched. Love to the whole family!
