“ GRANDMA 😔 it just occurred to me the other day that it's been six months since you're passing. I still look at your picture and talk to you every day like you're still here but you are terribly missed and this life is so lonely without you.

“ I would just like to share a memory actually several memories being that my grandmother’s birthday has just recently passed. It was July 16. She would’ve turned 84 years old. She is sorely missed and it was a really hard day for most of us. But GRANDMA 😊, you are alive forever in our hearts and we will continue to celebrate your birth for many years to come.
