

Emilie Mae Isenhour

March 30, 1929 - July 10, 2025

Emilie Mae Isenhour, 96, of Anderson, passed away on 10 July at St. Vincent in Anderson. She was born March 30, 1929, in Anderson. Emilie is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, David and Nancy. She had two granddaughters, Alison Isenhour and Lauren (David) Mark. She had two great-grandsons, John David Mark and Joshua James Mark. She was preceded by her husband and best friend, Robert (Ike) Isenhour. They met at Anderson High School. They were together for over 50 years. He passed away in 2007. Emilie had several passions: Her immediate and extended family, America, and history. She volunteered numerous times in her life. She was heavily involved with Scout Troop 249 in Park Place. Up until April of this year, she was volunteering at the Madison County Historical Society. Again, showing her passion for history, if on more of a local level. She had a positive impact on numerous individuals, both family and friends. She will be missed. Memorial contributions may be made to the Madison County Historic Society or Meadowbrook Baptist Church. The family will receive friends from 12:30 - 2:30 pm on Wednesday, followed by the service at 2:30 with Pastor Dennis Zirkle officiating.

“ My heartfelt sympathy for the passing of your beloved Emilie ! I first met her through the American Legion Post 127 Auxiliary Unit... She taught me so much ... I would go to her house so she could teach me and share with me her knowledge of the Auxiliary... She would talk for hours Loved her !
