“ Aunt Marion, Emmett, Kenneth & Tom We were saddened to hear of Uncle Emmetts passing. But, we know you shared many happy memories to remember him by. He still looks as handsome as ever in his picture. I still remember Uncle Emmett telling my I should make a bed so a quarter would bounce on it. With fitted sheets, I finally learned how to do it. We just heard the news, and will try and make it from northwest Indiana. We trust that the flowers will arrive on time. We send our love and deepest sympathy. Love, Carolyn & Steve

“ Tom, Naselroad : Know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. I am going to attempt to come to the showing. Just in case I don't show, my stepson was here, I wanted you to know I'm thinking of you and your family. You will always have your grandfather with you, just as I have my stepson. Keep the memories close and it will help. Love, Your friend and ex co-worker, Waneta
