Dear Diane and family, I regret your loss of Mother and Grandmother. My family had lost track of Virginia after our mother's death. We are sorry to read of her death, but we hope that you have many happy memories from childhood and from all your life to help you through your grief. My mother, Madge Muterspaugh Kennedy was a friend of your mother. Virginia, Dale, and Mother grew up together in Shirley on the same street and went to Kennard School together. Virginia and Mother rediscovered one another in Anderson approximately 40 years ago and visited one another often. I feel certain that Mother met you when you came from Florida to visit your mother. Virginia spoke of you often. My daughters Mary-Pat and Denise knew her, also. My mother died July 23, 1998. She was so dear to my sisters Mary Ann in Vermont and Pat in Colorado and to myself and to our families. My grandchildren have heard so much about her that they call her Madge and feel certain they knew her although only the 10-year-old Jacob knew her for 9 months. Losing a mother stays with one forever it seems. We remember your little, red-headed mother Virginia with smiles and best wishes to all her family. With loving memories from all my family,
