“ I remember lots of sunny afternoons sitting with Richard on his front porch, drinking iced tea and listening to his stories of old. He defiantly had lots of interesting stories, he knew lots about Anderson and its history. I will miss those times and hold the ones we shared dear. My deepest sympathy goes out to Richard\'s family and friends. He was so easy to like, I don\'t think he knew any strangers, a very kind and caring person... He will be missed. Jason L Castor
