“ I've enjoyed knowing Eugene, he was good at sharing stories on his wintery part of the Korean War, talking about his late wife, he took a lot of pride with the successes of Scott and Gina. As well his daughter in law Bry, Grandchildren; Emily,Ryan,Sophia and Tanner. He also carried a lot of admiration for Gina's Friend Marlo, my finance. He enjoyed talking about nature and his yard with me and the neighborhood in which he took a lot of pride in.

“ I've known Eugene for several years as we became family when my daughter Bryanna married Scott. Eugene was a very kind, caring man who loved his grandchildren. We will miss him at our family dinners and holidays. He is with God now and at peace.
