“ I have many memories of Eva. She was a very lovely lady.

One memory I have is when my youngest son, Zachary and I stopped by their house to say hi on the way to Ball State. We talked for hours and then as we were leaving she gave us a picture she had of her mom celebrating a birthday. This was a picture of Zachary great grandmother. And to this day, the picture is displayed among my family wall of pictures.

She will be greatly missed but will be having fun getting to see her brothers and sisters up in heaven. I know my father in law, George is celebrating with her.

My thoughts and prayers are with Bill during this difficult time.
