“ I'm so sorry to hear about the passing of Mr. Handley. My Dad, Kenny Metzger, worked at Delco and consulted with Mr. Handley on numerous occasions. Dad always had high praise for him, and, later in life, appreciated receiving his expert advice on elder care. I personally met Mr. Handley when Dad passed away in May of 2010. (Ironically, Dad would have been 94 today. He was born on 9-1-1920). Mr. Handley was very kind and thoughtful toward Dad at the funeral home, which we appreciated. I was impressed with his character and integrity. The Handley family have my deepest condolences.

“ Lee was a great inspiration and solid father figure to my dad, who never had much of a father figure. His smile and warmth will be missed on this earth. Much love to Sue and the rest of the family. (Cindy Kim-Hengst---Duck's daughter)

“ Lee was a gentleman, always courteous and polite, and he loved his Lord Jesus Christ. I remembered how he enjoyed reading Oswald Chambers. Our prayers are with his family. He finished his course well. A good and faithful servant.
