“ I will always remember Fay when I see a hosta or walk through the men's area of a department store! What a privilege it was to care for Fay.

“ To LaVerne and your family, I am from Dr. Buchanan's office. I wanted to know my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I so enjoyed taking care of Fay when she came into our office, we will miss her very much! I loved seeing her talk about her career in men's wardrobe in Anderson, she seemed to have loved her job. My niece, Tara also knows you LaVerne, she works at the Ortho office in Greenfield. Please take care and I hope to see you soon. Sincerely, Karen Dingman

“ Our deepest sympathy goes out to the family for your lost of Faye. "This is the day which the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it". Yes today is a day to celebrate Faye\'s life in on earth as well as in heaven. Dad Charles told us about who all was awaiting his arrival at the gates, so I know for sure there was a welcoming "home" party for Faye and that she is safely in their care. I sure Faye will be giving a few proper dress attire lessons to the angels. We will always remember the great times we shared together and all the laughter! Vernie I promise we will come to visit this year again, I\'m so glad that we made that short stop prior to Dad\'s death. This email is sent with lots hugs. Deb
