“ My family lived on 38th St. not far from Valley Grove School and that is where the Smith & Cambell families met. I remember spending many, many evenings at the Campbell's home having a great time. Rosalind was my age and we trailed after Gene and thought Johnny was a pest! Florence had beautiful red hair and a heart of gold. They lost their home twice, and Florence kept her sense of humor and her family together. My heartfelt sympathy to all of you. Beverly Smith Austin
