

Florence E. Moore

August 22, 1907 - June 23, 2010

Markleville - The life journey of Florence E. Rector Moore started on August 22, 1907 and ended on June 23, 2010. She was 102 years old. Florence lived her whole life in Madison County, where she was one of five children, born to Carl and Margaret Black Rector. She attended the local schools in Southern Madison County, graduating from Anderson High School in 1925. After high school, she attended Ball State to attain her teaching license. Florence then returned to Madison County to teach in two different one room school houses, one located on 300 East, known as Bethel School. The other one room school was located in Ovid, at a later time she taught fourth grade at Fall Creek School located on 200 East for 20 years. In May of 1929, she married Wayne H. Moore, they had three sons. During the time she stayed home to raise their children, she also found the time to help start the Home Social Home Ec. Club. The other organization that was a big part of her life was the Order of Eastern Star #363 of Markleville, she was a 50 plus year member and had been Past Matron and held the office of treasurer for over 25 years. During her down time, she would do cross-stitching, crocheting, tatting and made many very beautiful quilts. Traveling also brought enjoyment to Florence. Wayne and Florence traveled to all the states and many of the Canadian provinces until his passing in 1968. After his passing, she continued to travel with friends and family, her last trip being to the southwest at the age of 98. She was also a Job's Daughters' Guardian in Markleville and a member of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority in Markleville. She is survived by her sons

Harold Moore friend Joan Brumfield of Markleville, and Ronnie Alice Moore of New Castle; grandchildren, Karl Tina Moore, Dianna Randy Short, both of Anderson, Jeff Cindy Moore of Brownsburg, Andy Kellie Moore of Ellettsville, and David Rozel Moore of Keller, Texas; great-grandchildren, Amanda Short of Indianapolis, Randall Short of Anderson, Lauren Moore of Anderson, Josh Moore of Brownsburg, Brittany and Trevor Moore of Ellettsville and Maggie and Ethan Moore of Keller, Texas; several nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, great great nieces and great great nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, Carl & Margaret Black Rector; husband, Wayne H. Moore; infant son, Willis Moore, brothers, Valorus, Maurice and Ralph Rector; sister, Eleanor Abshire and daughter-in-law, Sammie Philbert Moore. The family would like to thank the nurses and aides with St. John's Hospice, a special thanks to the aides, Sara and Patricia. A very big thank you also to the angels caregivers here on earth who helped to make Florence's last year easier, RaeAnn, Sue, Allene, Chris, Patty and Phyllis. Visitation will be from 2-6:00 PM, Sunday, June 27, 2010 at Robert D. Loose Funeral Homes & Crematory; 200 W. 53rd Street; Anderson with an Order of Eastern Star service at 5:30 PM.
