“ Grandma, we will always love you and miss you. There are alot of people you are finally getting to be with again. Thank you for teaching me to crochet. We will see again someday, but that does not stop the tears of sadness we have right now. I do cry tears of joy and happiness though that you are with Grandpa again. If it was not for you, we all would not be here. I will always fondly remember Christmas Eve's at your house and all of us together. I miss you Grandma.

“ Florence Thompson was an angel in disguise. Most important to her was her family. She was always there for everyone and loved every minute of it. Her smile and her laughter will be missed. Everything about Mrs. Thompson was superb. She will be greatly missed by everyone. God rest her soul and now we will all have a guardian angel looking over us. My prayers and thoughts go to the family. God Bless.
