“ To the Family, Frances, was a true friend, a loyal worker in whatever capacity she undertook; never leaving until her work was finished. Now that it is, sleep dear friend, I loved you.

“ I am heartbroken for France's family. She was a wonderful wife, mother and grandmother. She ruled the nest with all her love and wisdom. Also Frances was a loving daughter to her parents and Niece to Aunts and Uncles. She has been truly blessed and loved. As for me, I have lost my best friend. I loved her with all my heart and Frances will be missed in my life eternally. Frances was the most loving, sweet, funny, listener and the most feisty person I knew. She will never be replaced or forgotten! Frances I told you that I was going to let you not check out because we were going to grow old together and be 2 old ladies giving the world a hectic time. Frances I love you and miss you all ready, I will never forget you and you better be at those pearly gates to greet me when it is my time. My sweet little angel!
