“ Aunt Frankie was such a beautiful and kind woman. My memories of her are long and deep.
My fondest memories were watching her cook. I loved her cooking. Whenever I came to town she knew I loved her biscuits and she would make me some ALL the time. Boy do I miss that!
But my dearest memory was her faithfulness to Jehovah. Always strong and dedicated.
I will never forget our bond of eating ice cream and potato chips on the porch of her home on Locust St.
I miss her. My Love goes deep.

“ I first met Frankie when we worked in surgery at St. John's Hospital as very young women. A few years later she quit to raise her then two children. Then many years later I was working as a school nurse and saw Jackie when she was enrolling her sister's children in Meadowbrook Elementary School. Several years later I was in charge of the nursing program for the Anderson Community School Corporation and saw Frankie again at a Head Start Board meeting that I was attending and where she was teaching. We were always happy to see each other and "catch up on family" and etc.

Frankie was a find gentle women that was pleased to have known her.

My sympathy goes to her family.

May her Soul Rest in Peace.

“ I remember the laughing we did together watching the funniest home videos or talking about some of the memories from her days working at Headstart. Her fussing at Kole (dog), while he sat on the back of her chair. I will cherish every moment with her. She had her good and bad days, but she knew I would be there for her always.

I love you, you will be missed.

Your baby girl, Daneta
