“ To Wilma, I am the grand daughter of Charles & Delma Biddle. He was the youth pastor at Westside Tabernacle in the 1950's. I remember you and Fred. How kind you both were to me. I remember a story of his kindness; We kids of the church had been to a party or celebration i think maybe a birthday party when we were getting into your car to leave i accidently got 3 fingers caught in the car door. they were smashed flat but not broken.Fred really touched my heart when he didn't yell at me or scold me for being stupid and having my hand where it didn't belong. Instead he was kind,gentile and caring to an injured,shy and timid childme. i have never forgotten either of you. i asked my grand mother before she passed away if she knew what chuch you had moved to. she didn't know. i have always wanted to find you and Fred so i could say thank you for being so kind and gentile. Wilma i am so sorry for your lose. Fred was a good man and will be missed by all those who's lives he has touched.from, Mary Talbert Stevens
