“ Dear RuthAnn - I am so sorry to hear of your mother's passing. When I think of her I always remember her smile and enthusasim for life. All those special high school events I attended began with a visit to your mother's salon. The first time I had my hair highlighted was at her salon. You and your family have my deepest sympathies.

“ Dear Ruthie, My Deepest Sympathy to you and your family. Nila Moore and I were just wondering last week, where she was. We hadn't seen her in along time. Freda did Nilas hair 30 yrs. ago. My friend Jody had worked for her in the salon. She will be missed. My schedule won't permit me to leave on Friday, otherwise I'd be there, Sincerly, Irene Shoemaker Yost
