

Gail Frances Baker

January 27, 1949 - August 18, 2022

Gail Frances Baker, 73, of Pendleton, passed away on August 18, 2022, in Pendleton, IN. She was born on January 27, 1949, in Anderson, Indiana, and resided most of her life in Pendleton.

Gail loved her family more than anything in life. Her grandkids meant the world to her. She loved vacations, especially going to Myrtle Beach every summer. She always enjoyed going to church and spending time with her church family.

Gail is survived by her son, Phillip (Brandi) Baker, her daughter, Amy Baker, her daughter, Melody Baker, and her brother, Allan (Debbie) Howell. She also had five grandkids, Kelsea (Allen) Askren, Morgan Baker, Austin Baker, Allison Gibson, and Isabella Navalo, and one great-grandson, Preston Sokol.

She was preceded in death by her father, Ace Howell, mother, Nora Howell, and her sister, Colleen Howell.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date.

www.loosecares.com