“ During my childhood and teens, the Weatherfords, my family and two other families had an annual Christmas party for which we exchanged names. One of the Weatherfords drew my name. We were to share gift ideas and I asked for "Distant Shores " by Simon and Garfunkle. There were no Targets or Best Buys back then so Garnet went to a record/music store to purchase the album. Because my penmanship was a bit unusual, Garnet asked the clerk for "Distant Snores!" She loved to tell funny stories about herself and took delight in sharing this one when she gave me the gift. Loved to hear her laugh!
