“ ..So lets see You Gary were amazing. ..You had a heart bigger than the ocean and you were a rock for alot of people....So many times we would talk about everything. ..You like to joke and play jokes and I think one of your best on me was when I came in September and I really needed help... You told me you couldnt help cause you broke your leg.....Even though I didnt really believe you I started to get concerned and because you didnt want me to worry you told me naw just joking. I laughed then I told you well I was going to make you help anyways.. The world is going to be a whole lot emptier without you in it..... You will forever be remember ed and missed.....
