

Genevieve "Jenny" Kata

December 25, 1931 - May 7, 2008

Genevieve "Jenny" Kata December 25, 1931 – May 7, 2008 Jenny Kata, 76, of Anderson, ended her journey through this life on Wednesday, May 7, 2008 at Ball Memorial Hospital in Muncie, Indiana, as a result of surgical complications. She passed on knowing how much her family and friends loved her. A private service was held on May 9, 2008 at the Robert D. Loose Funeral Home and Crematory, and cremation followed. Jenny's life was her family and friends, her home and her dogs. She was involved for most of her adult life with breeding, raising, showing and grooming dogs. After her retirement from dog grooming, she devoted her remaining twenty-one years to her husband, family and home, and friends. Jenny was a rare person who valued honesty and integrity above all else, and possessed an extraordinarily loving and unselfish heart. She always looked for good in people and always somehow managed to find it. She will be sorely missed by her surviving husband Steve, her daughter Linda Wechsler husband Gary, grandson Justin Wechsler Ryan and great granddaughter Gracie, of Niles, Michigan, granddaughter Jessica Haley husband Adam of Louisville, Kentucky, and grandson Nathan Wechsler of Pendleton. She is also survived by daughter Dawn Shreves, grandson Brandon Shreves wife Karen and great grandson Cole Shreves, all of Markleville. She was preceded in death by her son, Keith Schimmel in September, 2007. www.LooseFuneralHomes.com

Tribute Wall

LC

“ Steve, I was so sorry to hear about Jenny. She was a heck of a gal. I always admired her and treasured her advice regarding the shelties. I still have Little Trees Red SunsetJill and her daughter, Little Trees Cajun Queen Margo and I am grateful to her for breeding such wonderful dogs. I will miss her a lot. Sincerely, Linda Carne

Linda Carne - May 13, 2008 at 12:00 AM

NH

“ Steve, I am sorry to here of the death of your wife. I'm thinking of you and will keep you and your family in my prayers.

Nancy Hart - May 12, 2008 at 12:00 AM