“ So sorry for your loss, Kevin. I will be praying for you and your family during this time. I did not know your Dad, but I imagine that you may have gotten your sense of humor and some of your people skills from him. May God strengthen you as you go through these next few days and the weeks that follow.

“ Dear Kelly:

Tonya and I share our condolences on the loss of your father. My dad always spoke highly of George during their service in the Anderson Exchange Club, where they were both past presidents. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.
