

Georgia Lee Mitchell

October 1, 1929 - December 1, 2020

Georgia Lee Mitchell, 91, of Pendleton, passed away December 1, 2020, at St. Vincent Regional Hospital in Anderson. She was born October 1, 1929, in Monterey, Tennessee, to the late Dora and Jasper Phillips and resided most of her life in Pendleton.

She was a loving homemaker, raising five beautiful children, and retired from Brookside Factory after over 20 years of service.

She was a past member of the Pendleton American Legion, and the Amvets. She was an amazing cook, loved to read, garden, doing anything outdoors, including riding the 4-wheeler with her kids searching for ginseng.

Georgia is survived by her loving children, Wilma (Doug) Swackhamer, Roy "Mike" (Sheila) Melton, Ray (Brenda) Melton, Greg (Sharon) Melton, and Wayne Poor; "a bunch" of grandchildren and great-grandchildren, as she would say; and her sisters, Nancy Turner, Thelma Buckner, and Shirley Whitaker.

She was preceded in death by her parents, and several siblings.

A private memorial service will be held.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Diabetes Association in Georgia's honor.
