“ This wonderful man was my sales manager at the radio station. My fondest memory is the two of us driving up to Lansing Michigan and back in one day to visit a new client. We talked and ate and had a great time. Gerald was a rock for me when my husband was killed in 1990 quite unexpectedly. I had to take some time off and he covered things that I just couldn't get done. He will be missed by many. A radio family was a close one.
