“ I just read in a Jolly Roger” (Madison Heights) tribute about Jerry’s passing. I remember when he and his parents lived on 37th street in Meadowbrook in Anderson. I was in his grade and grew up on Brown St. He was a sweet kid. So sorry to finally hear of his passing. Hope his family is doing ok now.

“ Sharing time; Sharing coffee with Gerry or playing a game of golf with him provided me a little relaxation, a little fun, and a chance to catch up on each other's lives. Such things are the meeting of life; they are relationships with other lives based on sharing time with one another. Gerry, shared time with me and I will never forget those meetings. My prayers and thoughts are with you both .

“ Reagan, your daddy and I were good friends when we were young. He liked to laugh, and was a very loving and caring person. I'm sorry I lost touch with him, but I know he is with God in heaven. Susan, my prayers will be with you always. Please give my love and sympathies to Gerry's dad. I can't imagine how hard this must be for him, but let him know I will be praying for him as well.

“ Susan and Reagan, I'm sorry about your loss. Over the past four years I've really got to know Gerry through work and on the golf course. During those four years he often spoke about Reagan and her life and how proud he was to be her father. It's going to be hard not seeing him every Sunday morning during golf season. Susan, I hope you get better soon. Andrea and I will be coming to visit. Tom “ Susan, Reagan, and Geri - We are so sorry for your loss. We can't really think of where to start or what to say at this time because we are still in shock over our loss. Just know that our thoughts and prayers are with all of you all of you, and Susan, we hope you have a speedy recovery. We loved Gerry as we did his Mother and he will be sorely missed.

“ I am very sorry for your loss, Gerry worked with me here at St. Johns with our account and in addition, I talked with him everyday when he was in Bennett during his recovery. Words cant express my shock and sympathy at his early exit from us, i'll be praying for you through this and trust that the Lord has his own timetable for all of us. Again, I counted Gerry a friend and he'll be missed greatly. In Christ, Brian C.
