“ Gerald you will be missed. You were my oldest brother and it is not easy loosing you so close to loosing our sister. You had wonderful care from your daughters. I know you were very proud of them. I am happy that you are not suffering any more and that you are with God and family in eternity. Bob and I were there with you when you passed. Being a numbers person, you passed on 8-9-10. The last song you heard prior to passing was "Precious Memories". You have given us all many memories. We heard the train and I asked you if you wanted to get on. Marsha and Barbara said it was the train to heaven. You did not want to miss the train, and you got on as you breathed your last breath. You are now pain free. Love you always.
