“ Marzella & Family,

I am sorry for the loss of your Son...Brother.....Uncle.....a very important person in your life.

I was shocked and saddened to hear about Gerald's death. I had not seen Gerald in many years but the two things that I will always remember about Gerald..... his beautiful smile and his kind heart. There are times in life when our hearts are broken and we can't see beyond our circumstances. I am praying that Jehovah grants you strength at this time and He gives you comfort. May Gerald's love for you be what you remember most. Someone said, "Grief is really love. It's the love you want to give but can't and is just love with no place to go"

Death can't separate people from love. It can't take away our memories either. In the end, love is stronger than death.

I believe as we grow older we learn that being family means more than being people who just share a last name or a family tree.

Family are people who are there for each other when times get tough and want the best for each other. I am sure Gerald understood that and felt the love and support from all of you.

We are forever blessed that Jehovah God connected us all to Gerald while he was here with us.

May you feel Jehovah's love making you stronger in the coming months. Remember, when you can't He can. When you are the most alone...He is intimately present. When it is the darkest, He is the only Light you need.

Love, Pat (Fenner)
