Wow...what a wonderful woman always took me in and treated me like I was part of the Family. Who could ask for better parents Danny my great friend and Anita you were blessed. As I have not been around for the recent times. I can look at pictures and see Everyone of your kids :-) always always with a big smile. To me that means that you were doing the same as you was taught. By the wonderful parents that you had! I'm heartbroken again very sort amount of a few months. But no doubt they were always meant to be together. God bless you all and love you very much.

“Danny and Anita, I will miss your mommy so much. I think the best word I can use to describe her that would encapsulate all of her "good stuff" would be "kind". Jerrie was tender-hearted and driven to do good and right things. Her sense of humor and her tendency to "get tickled" were so much a part of her endearing personality. Jerrie was a wonderful mother to you two, and she was a wonderful to aunt, too. I loved her and thank God for her. I pray many times a day for you two and your families to be comforted and to heal. Love you bunches and gobs! :) Ruthi”
