“ Glapha will be missed. My Mother, Aaron Beatrice Harris adored her, and for years my walk to Meadowbrook Elementary School took me down the alley next to Glapha's house. My day was not complete without seeing Dan the Dachshund, both on the way to and from school. Glapha is in many photos taken by my parents at Christmas, and my favorite shirt as a child was given to me by Glapha. I'm Grateful to her for the time she spent with my Mother throughout her life, and grateful also that she tried to maintain contact with my Mother who also developed Alzheimers and dementia. Virgil, Phil, Nancy, Phillip and Rodney, you were blessed by the presence of this remarkable woman. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Mark Harris Carpentersville, Illinois
