“ Barney Burton, current owner of Daisy Pogue/ Shields farm surrounding Johnson cemetery where I often pass Glen and Barbara's marker. wish Doug would complete the dates on the stone and come see me. I miss Glen and Marion and their boyhood stories when they would come visit Aunt Daisy for the hot summer. the scar is still there in the woods where the three boys dammed up the branch hoping for a cool place to wade in the water also is still alive the birch tree James Bartum Shields carved his name in the 1800's hard to read but still there. Their spirit still thrive here and I'm convinced some part of these three brothers still live. No doubt. Because I am owned by my lord and savior Jesus the Christ I've been given privy to divine appointment. There is lady in my small church born shortly before Carol Lynn Shields death in Dec. 1957 also my birth . Romaine Guyer's Mother was a Hitler youth , didn't speak well but in their Quaker church Carol begged and begged Romain's mother Inga to hold baby Romain to which she finally relented and was so glad she did as carol's last words were Merry Christmas! to the bus driver as she jumped out in front of the car that took her life. I wasn't there but I can feel the pain and see the family gather around this sacred place 67 years ago. I just lost my father too last oct,6,2023 he would've been 94 also. I still feel his presence and know he too is still going! Praise God over and over, you can see where the world is headed
