“ My sincere sympathies to Jill and Bret, and all of Glen's Indiana family. My mother, Viva Jane Short Haines, loved her brother very much and shared many stories of their growing up together in Muncie. Although she lived in California and wasn't able to see Glen much, he was in her thoughts and prayers until she passed away in 2001. I know his last letter meant so much to her. I have fond memories of visiting Uncle Glen, Nana, and Papa and my cousins as a kid. Chasing fire flies in the yard at Uncle Glen's house stands out in my mind and enjoying Nana's wonderful cooking. I remember my uncle as a kind and gentle man. I would love to hear from any of our family and anyone that knew my mom and her brother in those early years in Muncie.
