“ So many childhood memories. All of them good. Living in the basement in the old house down the road from Hillcrest church. Grace had clothes by the furnace. She wore shoes of pain but she was the loveliest lady I knew. Skilled to do any job at Remy. Spending the night with Lorna and getting up in the middle of the night to go out and play leap frog. GRACE WAS ALWAYS UP FOR FUN. Watching her care for her parents daily in her home. The smell of fried chicken each Sunday for lunch. Picnics in the park with the whole church. I loved Grace like a second Mom to me. The memories are endless. What a special woman of God. What a wonderful mom, sister, daughter, wife and friend to all who knew her. Blessings on you her family. Especially the young ones who did not get to see her at her best time in life like I did. She was a Godly woman of scripture. Once she told me, " you don't need a song book." She was right . I haven't used once since. Try it! She would be proud. Love, Vivian Crim Sharp
