“ Not only will I remember Aunt Grace for being my "pretty" aunt, but for being the one who taught me to bake pies. The summer I was 9 (60 years ago) my brothers and I stayed with Grace and Pete while our mother was taking a class in Indianapolis. There was a cherry tree in the back yard that I would climb every morning and pick enough cherries for a pie. Grace taught me the whole process from tree until out of the oven. We ate a lot of cherry pies that were made with my 9 year old hands. I'm good at pies today, thanks to Aunt Grace. We'll always hold her in our hearts! Mary Lou Clevestine Mohaupt
