“ Oh Grammaw, if only I had realized when you were here how precious memories would become. You had the patience of a saint, I never heard you raise your voice or have a bad word to say about anyone. You always had a way of making me feel better whenever I talked to you about anything I was upset about and made me feel like everything was going to be alright. You truly loved me unconditionally and never once judged me whenever I made a mistake. I am so grateful that God made you my Grandma. I am so blessed me to have had you in my life for 37 years. I wish you could call me from time to time because I have so much I would love to talk to you about, I love you so much and hope I get to see you again someday <3

“ Dear Mamaw, Thank You for being the best Grandma anyone could ever ask for. You were always there for me, & you never judged me when I made mistakes. I know how hurt you were all those years ago, but you loved me just as much then as you did when I was a little girl. I have sooo many memories of you & Papaw. I'm glad I always lived close to you & was able to see you all the time. Again I Thank You for being the wonderful role model you were, & I thank God for giving me you for 34 years. Until we meet again, I Love You!
