

Grady Eugene Currie

January 22, 1967 - January 22, 2021

Grady Eugene Currie, 54, of Anderson, passed away on January 22, 2021, at Edgewater Woods Nursing Home, Anderson.

He was born on January 22, 1967, in Anderson, the son of John and Ada Belle (Wilson) Warren and Grady and Rebecca Currie.

Grady had worked as a correctional officer at the Indiana Reformatory and also had worked in security for NTN/NTK.

He was the best husband a wife could ever ask for, and he dearly loved his family.

Grady was a member of Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses on Madison Avenue.

He is survived by his loving wife, whom he married, June 3, 1995, Tameka (Lewis) Currie; children, Gary (Tiffany) Warren, Trenton Currie, and Jaylen Currie; granddaughter, Gia Warren; siblings, Cheryl Warren, DeWayne Warren, Monica Warren, Kevin Dixon, Charles (Ann) Currie, Tim Currie, Michael Currie, and Deadria (Philip) Iyamekhare; and several nieces and nephews also survive.

Grady was preceded in death by John Warren, Grady and Rebecca Currie; and sister, Sharon Warren.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to Ascension St. Vincent Anderson and the Fresenius Kidney Care, Anderson, for their care and compassion during Grady's illness.

Due to the Covid-19 Pandemic and the Governor's Mandate, all visitation and services will be private.

“ So sorry for your loss. Prayers for you and the family. I'll never forget him joking with me when he came to the lab. And, being related to Stephen Curry. Just last name are spelled different. Lol He was always happy and smiling every time you saw him. Cherish the memories hold the dear in your heart. Love ya Tameka.
