

Gregory W. Farren

August 16, 1949 - April 22, 2012

Indianapolis - Gregory W. Farren, 62, Indianapolis, left his earthly home on April 22, 2012 suffering a massive heart attack at his home. He was born August 16, 1949 in Anderson, to John and Mary Farren. He graduated from Madison Heights High School in 1967 and attended Indiana University and Northwest Institute, graduating with a business education degree. He won Nixon's lottery and served in the National Guard for 6 years. Greg worked as an accountant for Guide Corporation for 30 years. He then worked for Community Hospitals of Indianapolis for 5 years as a payroll specialist. He loved all sports and was proud to call himself a Cubs fan. He followed the Beach Boys for decades, attending numerous concerts. He was a quiet, gentle man who was kind to everyone he met. He is survived by his wife of 28 years, Susan Cunningham Farren; and his precious daughter, Allison; cousins and numerous friends. His mother, Mary Smith Farren also survives. He was preceded in death by his father, John Farren; and his beloved dog, Silly. Visitation will be from 9:30-11:30 AM on Saturday, April 28, 2012 at Robert D. Loose Funeral Homes & Crematory; 200 W. 53rd Street; Anderson.. A memorial service will be Saturday, April 28, 2012 at 11:30 AM, at the funeral home. Cremation will take place. Memorial contributions may be made to Madison County Humane Society or American Heart Association. www.LooseCares.com

“ Susie, I am so sorry to hear about your loss. I was just wondering the other day if you were on facebook. I work here at the funeral home and if you need anything, don't hesitate to call and ask for me. I would come to see you on Saturday, but our daughter's birthday is this Saturday and we are going out of town to that. Is your mother still living? Mother in is the nursing home, but was sorry to hear of your loss also. Again, our prayers will be with you during this terrible time. Nancy Garrett McEwen
