“Hallie was a great Christian woman. I knew her from all my years at Anderson First Church. A day didnt go by that I didnt see a smile on her face. She was always caring enough to ask me how I was doing or if there was anything she could pray for me about. She will be greatly missed, but Jesus has one of the very best with Him.”

“As you well know, Hallie and Earl were two of our very best friends. We had many, many happy times together; working, playing, laughing, praying, eating, joking, and all around good fellowship. We will especially miss the fried apple pies. Hallie will sadly be missed by the Church and all her friends. She loved Jesus, She loved Her Church and wanted everyone to be a Christian. She worked toward this end. We are sad for ourselves but happy for Hallie because now She is with Earl and together they are with JESUS.”
