“ Brother Ray, although you have left the physical realm and are sorely missed, the connection will never be severed. As always, you are in my mind and heart until I die and perhaps beyond. Yes, this is your annoying little sister, the bane of your existence in our early years. But, even then, I always knew you had my back and you proved it more than once over the years. Through the bad times and the good, the bonds that tie us were formed, with a wealth of memories to keep forever. I know I'm a bit prejudice, but from the outpouring of love from the community, so many have recognized your qualities of resolve and determination, as well as being a bit of a softy. You have loved and been loved, and fathered two strong daughters who were your voice in your greatest time of need. Well done, brother, so rest up because I plan on annoying you again someday. Your Little Sister, Linda
