“ From the moment I met him we bonded as brothers. Veteran to veteran we spoke even without words with a simple hand hold. Often he rested his head on my forearm the unspoken but felt ,I love you brother. He was my friend , my brother and hero.

“ Every time I saw him at church he always greeted me with a smile and a good morning handshake. Our family loved all the times we went out and ate together and visited, especially at his favorite Pizza Hut. Harold was a wonderful, caring man who believed he would walk again and now he is with our Savior. He will be missed but we will see him again at the family reunion in Heaven! We won't forget you Harold!
