“ Just wanted to let someone know, that, although he may not have remembered us, my children and I remember him fondly...my kids played with his little dog, and he helped my son build an "airplane" out of left over lumber...this has been a few years ago...my son is now 15, and was in Kindergarten when he and "Old Man Harry" built the plane...Never saw alot of him once we moved away..just every once in awhile...but I do remember him with fondness
