

Helen B. Milliner

March 3, 1913 - September 18, 2017

Helen B Milliner, 104, of Anderson, passed away on September 18, 2017 at the Miller's Merry Manor in Middletown. She was born on March 3, 1913 in Greenfield, and resided most of her life in Anderson.

Helen attended Greenfield High School, and was a homemaker.

She enjoyed camping, traveling, and spending time with her children and her grandchildren.

Helen is survived by her children, Robert G. (Virginia) Milliner, Peggy Joann Cheever, Carolyn Sue (Jerry) Mandrell, Trenda Jean (Ronald) Bilbrey, Gary Wayne Milliner; brother, David "Caroll" (Marge) Warrum; 15 grandchildren; 31 great-grandchildren; 34 great-great-grandchildren; and two great-great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Jesse Milliner; father, Perry Warrum; mother, Martha Warrum; son in law, Richard L. Cheever, Sr.; great-granddaughter, Jessica Cheever; six brothers, and four sisters.

Graveside services will be Friday, September 22, 2017, 1:30 pm at East Maplewood Cemetery, with her nephew, Rev. Tim Warrum officiating.

Loose Funeral Homes & Crematory has been entrusted with the services for Helen.

The family would like to give a "special thanks" to the nurses and staff at Miller's Merry Manor in Middletown, and Ginny, from Heartland Hospice for their loving care of Helen.
