“ I was under Jean's care for over 8 years. I can remember Papaw in the garage tinkering away, Jean making sure we had our after school snack, or all of us kids driving big wheels in the driveway. I can remember at least 6 or 7 kids at a time for a long time. As I got older, Jean watched fewer kids, and after awhile it became just me and Travis. Jean was like a second grandmother. My only regrets are letting my teenage and college years get the best of me and therefore lost touch with Jean after we moved to Missouri. My condolences and sympathy are with Florajean and the rest of her family. I am at least glad that Jean is now with the Father who she faithfully worshipped everyday and with Papaw and Josh. I believe she will be well taken care of and welcomed with love.
