“ I will always cherish the time we had together and will miss you so much. One memory in particular: A few years ago, I was working near her house in South Tampa. At least once a week, I would go to her house for a delicious lunch. If I was having a bad day or a hectic day, I would go to Aunt Ina's house and I could "escape" for an hour. She always took care of me and offered a relaxing place to have lunch. Thanks for everything Aunt Ina.

“ I know that Ina is in a better place now, walking and talking with Jesus. We will be thinking about her alot this Easter sunday. But we know that we will be reunited in heaven one day
