“ I met Pat when we both worked at Pay Less in the advertising department. Pat was one of the kind. When the boss was away. We jacked up the Michael Jackson songs and watched Pat dance on the filing cabinets. He could really do the moonwalk like no one else we lost touch after I left Pay Less. Sorry to hear of his passing. RIP Pat

I'm going to miss my friend Pat so much. We painted together many times and he was so much fun to be with. I loved his paintings and loved his wit. He was a great cook too. I can't believe he is gone, what a loss to the art world .
I send love and wish comfort to his family.
Thank you Pat for being in my life.

“ Pat and I met in art class when we were in elementary school. Our classes were in the teacher's basement. We didn't realize it then, but it had a Bohemian feel to it. Pat took it onto himself to teach me the color wheel and how colors blended together to create different looks. This was in elementary school! I knew Pat would have a career as an artist. We continued to cross paths through high school (class of '73) and then through PayLess. I have fond memories of Pat. I am honored to have known him. Prayers to his entire family - this is heaven's gain, our loss. Blessings
