“ Although I didn't know my Uncle J very well, I know he was kind to me when my father, Charles, died. I'm so sorry for your loss.

“ Dear Monica & Tammy, My sincere condolences on the loss of your Dad. May all the good times you had with him come to you at this time. Growing up in the Acre is a Memory in itself. WE were and are all Family in many ways. Your Dad always treated me like one of his own. One fond memory is when He took Monika and I to learn to play pool. I do not remember where, but I do remember that we were not to tell our Mom's.
