“ Daddy Jack, Thank you for all the blessings you have brought into my life. You were always there to lend a helping hand whenever you knew it was needed. Our home is a beautiful place because of you and Momma Joan. You are a kind and giving man with a precious smile and warm hugs. I will always hold you close to my heart. I can not tell you of all the joys and laughter you have brought into my life. Not only mine but the children too. I will always treasure the memories of you riding your Harley and working in the yard..... enjoying every minute of it. Family gatherings will not be the same with out you. "GIT R DONE" - I was given a gift the day I met you.

“ Thank you Uncle Jack for the memories. You made the world a much better place because you were in it but not of it! You have left a legacy that will be cherished forever. The uniqueness of your smile had a way of making everyone feel welcomed into your life. I knew that I would always have a good time in your presence!even if you did ALWAYS steal my cookies. I will be seeing you one day,look for me! I love you. Monica
